COMPETITOR ENTRY INFORMATION TO NOTE:

1. This competition is run under the guidelines and rules of New Zealand Recreational Dance Inc in either Dancesport or Recreational division as applicable.
2. Dancesport couples can dance their own grade and one higher as well as enter the Open to all events for their age group – either Juvenile/Junior, Youth/Adult or Masters.
3. All recreation competitors can dance in their own age group (only) as well as the Open to All events – age applies to the three sections – under 16, 16-35 or 35+.
4. In all the grades, you can choose to dance all or some of the dances.
5. This competition is unique because you have the selection of all ten dances to choose from no matter the grade (apart from D grade) but we only have the set amount of dances for New Vogue to help manage timings.
6. Due to Masters 3 having limited grades, we have also added Open events for Masters 3.
7. Reminder that the New Vogue dances are different to those at the October Nationals. This gives dancers a chance to work on a variety of dances throughout the year.
8. All competitors must be registered with NZRDI (New Zealand Recreation Dance Inc) in either Dancesport or Recreational division as applicable.
9. Youth and Masters 1 competitors may also enter the Adult divisions. However please note that couples may have to dance events consecutively.
10. All Dancesport events listed will be New Zealand title events.
11. Please note that the Amateur Teacher cannot also dance the same student in the open to all events or other graded events.
12. For dancers competing in the Dancesport single events, this is designed for those dancers who are registered as Dancesport but are not in a current partnership. These events are still partnered but only the person wearing the number is judged.
13. Any enquiries can be emailed to wellingtonsecretaryfatd@outlook.com

Thank you for supporting the NZFATD New Zealand Open One Dance Championship – we look forward to hosting you and providing an exciting competition for competitors and spectators alike.
